

HARDY COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

It is recognized that the Board and the Hardy County Public Library share a common commitment to the education of the populace of Hardy County. As a result of this common commitment there has been a long-standing tradition of cooperation between the Board and the Library. The Board appoints a member to the Hardy County Library Association. By a special act of the West Virginia Legislature a portion of the annual tax collections of the Board is earmarked for the Hardy County Public Library. The Board also provides space for the Hardy County Branch Library at Baker.
